

myQuorum Customer Activity Export Add-In Streamlines Excel Analysis, Gives Users Direct Access to Transaction Data, Improves Security

OFFICE APP BUILDER PROFILE: QUORUM

Quorum’s innovative software for hydrocarbon and energy business management is designed with industry expertise using next-generation technology. Proven to maximize profit throughout the energy value chain, our platform of integrated solutions delivers advanced functionality, improved efficiency, and enhanced regulatory compliance.

WHAT WE OFFER

Reduce reliance on cumbersome and static reports and provide users with an easy-to-use way of retrieving and analyzing up-to-date data without the extra steps of manual data exports. Schedulers and accountants can quickly gain visibility into transactional quantities, customer invoice data, and historical trends.

Improve security by reducing the proliferation of non-IT controlled applications, also known as shadow IT, and user login credentials. The Add-in leverages myQuorum login credentials to pull information into Excel. Users inherit the security roles and rules assigned to them, for example, user-specific datasets.

Drive to quicker business decisions by easily analyzing and reporting customer activity without the need to toggle between applications. The information is based on a canned dataset that users select from a drop-down menu. This pre-formatted table is then ready for customers or analysis using the native Excel features.

Decrease the need for user training and improve productivity. Users can work within the application they use every day for analysis and reporting, including mobile and cloud versions of Excel. By preformatting information into tables, users spend less time preparing data for analysis and reporting.
